After the announcement made by Province of Ontario that Halloween is a go while following safety measure the Council of the Township McGarry directs the Clerk-Treasurer to remove the posting "Cancelling Halloween" from the website.

The decision to go ahead with the distribution of candies or to go out trick or treating is left at the discretion of the residents. All residents are expected to follow the guidelines from Ontario Public Health as well as the guidelines from the Timiskaming Health Unit.

The first priority of Council is to try to keep all of the residents safe. If the Ontario Public Health or the Timiskaming Health Unit make any further announcement, Council will keep the residents informed.
